LOCAL MATTERS.

CHURCH NOTES .- At the Second Baptist church the pastor (Rev. Henry McDonald) baptized one person Sunday night. The usual services were held at Broad-Street Methodist church on Sunday morning. At night the church was closed on account of the weather.

At Centenary church Rev. R. N. Sledd preached morning and night. There were two additions by certificate. Rev. L. M. Lee, D. D., preached at Union-

Station church in the morning in the absence of the pastor, who is sick. No service at night. One person was received at Trinity

At the Manchester Methodist church collection was taken up for the yellow-fever sufferers. Rev. Pike Powers preached at St. Paul's church on Sunday morning. Rev. Dr. Wali preached at St. John's church on Sunday morning. At the First Baptist (colored) church on Sunday, after a sermon by Rev. S. H. Jones, an effort was made to raise funds with which to pay off the $8,000 debt on the new house of worship, which has been built at a cost of $29,000. Rev. J. H. Holmes, the pastor, explained the situation, and was followed by Rev. A. E. Dickinson, who congratulated his auditors that in times so unfavorable they had raised some $12,000 for building purposes, and urged them to go forward in the good work, and raise the last cent it was possible to get before going abroad for help. The following resolutions were adopted at the Baptist ministers' conference in this city yesterday morning:

Whereas we have learned with deep regret that our beloved brother, Dr. N. W. Wilson, formerly a member of this conference, has been stricken down with yellowfever while bravely standing at his post of duty in New Orleans : therefore Resolved, That we tender to Brother and his family spared from further attacks of this fearful scourge. 2. That our churches be requested, at$34 to $45 their Wednesday-night prayer-meetings, around their family altars, and in their places of secret prayer, to remember not
